Churches Together in Oxted, in Warlingham and beyond

CtW Lent talks on Wednesday evenings at St Ambrose Hall from 8 pm. Last week, we shared our experiences of how faith gives us the courage to carry on when the going gets really tough and the support of others along the way. Our pilgrim journey concludes on 21 March - the arrival. Also, on Wednesday mornings in the choir vestry of All Saints Church, Warlingham (Church Road). Come and join the virtual 'Pilgrimage' (a journey with a purpose from the wilderness to the Cross) and meet fellow pilgrims on the way. Pray and walk the ancient labyrinth at All Saints. Warlingham on Saturday mornings 9 am - 10.30 am.

Talk followed by Compline at St Mary's Church, Farleigh on Sunday 18 March at 4 pm

Lent is a time for clearing out the rubbish in our lives. To do this on a practical level, Churches Together in Warlingham will have a litter-pick every Sunday at 2 pm. Last week's was very successful with around 10 bags collected - which was noticed and received good comment from passers-by. This Sunday, 18 March, will meet on the corner of Limpsfield Road and Verdayne Gardens.

Lent groups CTOD is Exploring the Easter message through art 01883 730032 for details.

Good Friday Walk of Witness

Oxted meeting at 12 noon outside the council offices in Gresham Road and Warlingham meeting outside the Methodist Church at 11.00 am followed by the Service on The Green

CHRISM MASS at Arundel Cathedral. Wednesday 28th March, leaving St Ambrose at 2.45 and All Saints at 3pm. (To allow us to get away from All Saints before the schools finish.)
